Seven mountains – one unique winter sport experience

When winter is upon us, the seven mountains in the Oberstdorf-Kleinwalsertal ski region offer endless skiing and snowboarding fun for people of all ages and abilities with over 130 kilometres of pistes. And that's not all: from the Nebelhorn in Germany to the Ifen in Austria, families will discover a spectacular winter landscape with all sorts of activities for big and small.

Exhilarating, physically challenging or perhaps surprisingly adventurous, the mountains in Oberstdorf and the Kleinwalsertal Valley are sure to create lasting memories and offer action-packed experiences in the snow for all the family. And best of all, the ski areas are all linked to one another in the valley by a shuttle bus system and the local bus network. The ski pass is valid for all seven cable car companies with their 48 cable cars.

After the loss of the last ski season, the new cable cars on the Nebelhorn and Söllereck are particularly looking forward to their first official winter season.

Adler 7

This winter, the Adler 7 discovery tour will once again offer plenty of excitement and adventure. Under the slogan “Make it your territory”, winter sports enthusiasts can experience seven unique attractions in the cross-border ski region as well as seek out spectacular views with constant changes of perspective of the alpine scenery, for memories that last a lifetime.

Pure pleasure

You’ve been to one, you’ve been to them all? Not in the Oberstdorf/Kleinwalsertal ski region. The numerous mountain restaurants and farmed alpine huts offer endless diversity and tantalise the taste buds of locals and holidaymakers alike. From rustic huts to modern summit restaurants – there is something to delight any food connoisseur.

Tip

The chance to discover a new mountain every day is unique to the Oberstdorf/Kleinwalsertal ski region. After all, the seven ski areas are perfect for designing a wonderfully varied winter holiday. All of the summits are nearby and easily accessible from the valleys, enabling locals and holidaymakers to conveniently switch back and forth between the seven mountains (Nebelhorn, Fellhorn/Kanzelwand, Ifen, Heuberg, Söllereck and Walmendingerhorn).

Nebelhorn

Ski season: 10/12/2021 to 01/05/2022

Construction work on the Nebelhorn began in summer 2020. The modernisation of the gondola lift not only included disabled-friendly access but also a new valley and middle station as well as the expansion of the mountain station. Comfort is a clear priority. Seats for every passenger make it easy to enjoy the views and you no longer need to change cars at the new middle station – simply continue on your way to the summit with no more waiting in line. It will still be possible to get on/off the cable car at the Seealpe station for excursions to the Seealpe.

Fellhorn/Kanzelwand

Ski season:

Fellhorn 10/12/2021 to 18/04/2022

Kanzelwand 03/12/2021 to 18/04/2022

The cross-border skiing fun on the Fellhorn (Germany) and Kanzelwand (Austria) now includes a new three-kilometre-long family run, the spectacular Funslope, the cool Easypark, the Crystal Ground and night-time skiing by the Kessellift. Winter athletes of all abilities are sure to find something to challenge them. A stunning winter hiking trail to the Alpe Schlapold and an inviting mountain restaurant with a terrace and sun loungers round off the list of the many things on offer.

Walmendingerhorn

Ski season: 17/12/2021 to 18/04/2022

A cable car whisks you up to the summit of the Walmendingerhorn from where you can explore 15 kilometres of glorious pistes. The untouched slopes are ideal for deep-powder fans. The Gipfelstuba restaurant and Hora-Bar with a comfy open-air terrace offer traditional dishes and the perfect places to relax and enjoy the views. The summit station scores with a disabled-friendly panoramic lift to a geological viewing platform where holiday-makers can enjoy an expansive view across three countries.

Söllereck

Ski season: 17/12/2021 to 03/04/2022

The Söllereck is the ski region's family mountain. With conveyors and lifts, a mini park and a monster parcours, Söllis Winterwelt offers skiing fun for all the family. The SölliBully and Söllis Kugelexpress playgrounds plus the Allgäu Coaster with a virtual reality experience enhance this even further. The Schönblick mountain restaurant is the perfect place for winter sports enthusiasts to recharge their batteries with some culinary delights.

NEW: the days of lugging skis around are gone! This winter, the new, 10-seater gondola lift will conveniently whisk users up to the piste from the new valley station by the car park for the very first time.

Ifen

Ski season for the entire region:

17/12/2021 to 24/04/2022

Ski season for the Gaisbühl children's area: 03/12/2021 to 24/04/2022

The Ifen has established itself as a premium skiing area for families with around 25 kilometres of pistes ranging in category from Blue to Black. The Ifen I, Ifen II and Olympiabahn cable cars take winter athletes straight to the artificial-snow-covered pistes and hiking trails. Little ones learn to ski in Burmis Winterwelt (Burmi's Winter Wonderland). The winter hiking trail to the Gottesacker Plateau offers spectacular rock formations and impressive views. The Tafel & Zunder mountain restaurant pampers its guests with local, organic cuisine of top quality.

Heuberg

Ski season: 17/12/2021 to 18/04/2022

Located in the Kleinwalsertal Valley, the Heuberg is a popular choice for people of all ages and enjoys a family-friendly reputation thanks to its easy practice slopes. Valley lifts and snow-covered paths take avid skiers to the Walmendingerhorn. The Heuberg impresses with 22 kilometres of beautifully groomed pistes and winter hiking trails from Heuberg to Parsenn. The Burmi run is the "race track" for skiing stars of all ages.

Modernisation campaign on the Nebelhorn and Söllereck

Due to the official cease of operations caused by the global pandemic, in May 2020 the company decided to bring forward its quality campaign for the Nebelhorn by almost six months. Less than a year later, a new era began for the highest cable car in the Allgäu: the LEITNER bicable gondola lift with modern, 10-seater cabins was ready for operation by the planned opening date of 26 March 2021.

The highlights of the new Nebelhornbahn design

New valley, middle and mountain stations made from natural wood with impressive glazed elements. No need to change cars to get to the Höfatsblick mountain station. Less waiting. Disabled-friendly 10-seater gondola lift. Seats and panoramic views for every passenger. Less noise, less maintenance, longer service life and more compact, space-saving stations due to the bicable design with 2S technology.

The Söllereck is being further expanded as a year-round and family mountain with an impressive new infrastructure. Completion is scheduled for 2022. The new 6-seater Schrattenwang chair lift went into operation in December 2019. In 2020, this first successful step in the quality campaign was followed by the next.

The highlights of the new main cable car on the Söllereck family mountain:

Disabled-friendly 10-seater gondola lift. New valley, middle and mountain stations made from natural wood with landscaped roof areas. New valley station location (by the North car park). More safety: redesigned pedestrian bridge to the valley station; significant increase in convenience as less distance to walk.

Cross-country skiing trails

There are 75,000 metres of cross-country skiing fun around Oberstdorf divided into ten perfectly groomed trails for you to choose from. In addition to multi-lane trails in the middle of the valley, you will also find more remote trails for exciting journeys of discovery with the family. We have selected three cross-country skiing trails to tell you about in more detail.

Night-time cross-country skiing trail

In the Oberstdorf cross-country skiing stadium, a floodlit facility offers cross-country skiing fun after dark. The 2 km night-time trail is illuminated three times a week (Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday) from sunset until 8 p.m.

Want more cross-country skiing trails? All of the trails in and around Oberstdorf can be found in digital format and as GPS downloads at www.oberstdorf.de/langlauf

Tiefenbach circular trail

Length: 4 km cross-country skiing trail/1.5 km skating track

Altitude metres: 56 m

Location: near Tiefenbach, gently undulating terrain

Grooming: the circular trail is freshly groomed daily as required by approx. 10.30 a.m. Grooming may be delayed or cancelled due to the weather.

This moderately difficult circular trail reveals a hidden side of Tiefenbach, a tranquil district of Oberstdorf, and its picturesque surroundings. If the snow conditions are good, the short circular trail initially proceeds from the foot of the Falkenberg ascent towards the St. Georg equestrian centre. After a short loop, it resumes its path along the bottom of the Falkenberg ascent, this time taking a higher route that looks down on the centre of Tiefenbach and heads towards Rohrmoos. Here, the sun-drenched slopes invite you to stop and soak up the views across the hamlet of Reute and as far as the Oberstdorf Basin. The north-western edge of the circular trail, which is also its highest point, incorporates a manageable loop that is additionally groomed for freestyle skiing.

Oberstdorf circular trail

Length: 8 km cross-country skiing trail and skating track

Altitude metres: 35 m

Location: close-by, located south/south-west of Oberstdorf, largely flat terrain

Grooming: during normal winter weather conditions, this cross-country skiing trail is usually groomed daily at approx. 10 a.m. It is always the first trail to be groomed after fresh snow-fall. Grooming may be delayed or cancelled due to the weather.

The circular trail follows a diverse but easy route across the meadows and fields to the south of Oberstdorf, from the Walserbrücke bridge to the Loretto chapels. Along the way, it regularly passes points near the centre of Oberstdorf, where you can choose to join or leave it. After passing the lovely St. Loretto pilgrimage chapels, the trail continues to the Renksteg, offering spectacular views along the way. Here you will find the point where the route joins the cross-country skiing trails that were used for the FIS Nordic Ski World Championships 2021. Thanks to its convenient, easily accessible location at the southern end of the village, the trail is definitely one of the most popular in Oberstdorf. The sun-kissed meadows to the south of Oberstdorf guarantee sunshine from the early morning until the late afternoon.

i See cross-country skiing map: B

Faistenoy – Birgsau circular trail

Length: 6 km cross-country skiing trail

Altitude metres: 83 m

Location: valley, largely flat terrain

Grooming: this trail is one of the first to be groomed each day at around 9 a.m. Grooming may be delayed or cancelled due to the weather.

The southernmost cross-country skiing trail in Germany lies deep in the Stillachtal Valley and is a moderately difficult trail offering truly amazing views of the Allgäu mountains. This circular trail, with its spellbinding scenery, begins close to the Fellhornbahn valley station. From here, the trails climb gently upwards, passing the village of Anatswald and heading south. All the way to Birgsau, you will enjoy panoramic views of the Linkerskopf with its mantle of white and the surrounding summits of the Allgäu's main ridge, blanketed in deep winter snow. Snow is pretty much guaranteed on this circular trail, which runs close to the main ridge of the Allgäu Alps. If the snow has already thinned on the trails nearest to Oberstdorf, you are certain to find better conditions here. We recommend visiting this trail in the late afternoon when it is at its sunniest.

Hiking trails

To the Schöllang castle church

Length: 14 km Elevation gain: 99 m
Duration: 4.5 hours Location: valley

Start at the Dummelsmoosbrücke bridge and enjoy the views as you head north across the sunny plains of the Rubinger Oy. In the district of Schöllang, the winter hike takes you along Widum and up to the Schöllang castle church.

Thanks to the elevation, particularly spectacular views can be admired from by the chapel. After returning to Widum, the winter hiking trail climbs back up to the ridge through snow-covered forests. At the southern end, you are rewarded with one of the most beautiful views of the valley basin around Oberstdorf and the glistening white Allgäu Alps. After descending to Rubi, the winter hike returns to Oberstdorf past the source of the Iller. Along the causeway and the banks of the Trettach, you return to where you started in Dummelsmoos.

A winter's day in the Trettachtal Valley

Length: 13 km Elevation gain: 211 m
Duration: 4.5 hours Location: valley

This winter hike passes the remarkable St. Loretto chapels on the southern edge of Oberstdorf and heads up the Burgstall climb to the Trettachtal Valley. After passing Germany's southernmost golf course, glorious views open up as you head to the Christlessee Lake.

Even in winter, the mysterious, crystal-clear mountain lake with a cobalt-blue shimmer never freezes. This is because innumerable springs on its floor prevent ice from forming. The hike continues along the old Spielmannsauer Straße and over the Truppersoybrücke bridge to Spielmannsau.

To the south, you can enjoy impressive views of the snow-capped peak of the Trettachspitze. In summer, this is the start of the popular Alpine stage of the E5 long-distance hiking route from Oberstdorf to Merano. In winter, the return trail follows the Trettach River to the bridge at Gottenried.

Tip:

The Trettachtal Valley offers plenty of cosy and welcoming places to stop for a break. Treat yourself to some Allgäu specialities.

 See hiking map: S

A winter excursion to the wildly romantic Oytal Valley

Length: 10 km Elevation gain: 187 m
Duration: 4 hours Location: valley

From the Mühlenbrücke bridge at the south-east edge of Oberstdorf, the winter hiking trail follows the icy Trettach River over diverse terrain to the bridge over the Oybach River. Before reaching the bridge, the snow-covered Dr.-Hohenadel-Weg runs parallel to the wild and often frozen river up to the Oytal Valley.

The wintry Alpine Road (which is closed to public transport) now passes along quaint, narrow streets and through the idyllic, snowy winter landscape to the Oytalhaus. This is where the network of safe, cleared winter hiking trails ends in winter.

The white silhouette of the mountains in the rear section of the Oytal Valley and the rugged, vertically climbing, frozen rock faces of the Seewände Mountains are equally as impressive as the gentle, snow-covered and enchanting winter landscape along the valley floor. The route back to Oberstdorf initially retraces its footprints before heading back down the well-maintained Alpine road out of the valley. Passing the picturesquely located Kühberg and the Audi ski jumping arena, the trail returns to this circular hike's starting point.

Tip:

If you plan to visit the Oytal Valley during your holiday and the current conditions make the winter hike there possible, you shouldn't wait for too long before setting off. It's far from rare for all of the trails into the Oytal to be temporarily closed in winter due to the risk of avalanches. Anyone who delays their visit for too long runs the risk of snowfall and potential avalanches forcing them to rethink their plans. The hike is suitable for the whole family.

Skilegendenweg (skiing legends' trail)

Follow in the tracks of the Oberstdorf skiing legends through the winter landscape

Experience sporting history first-hand and celebrate the World Championships with up-close insights into how skiing developed as a sport on the skiing legends' trail. The trail is lined with fascinating information points with details of Oberstdorf's skiing legends and stunning viewpoints.

Length: approx. 5 km Location: valley Duration: 2 hours
Info: the snow on the trail may be slippery underfoot depending on the weather

The hike starts from one of the finest ski stadiums in the world – the Audi Arena Oberstdorf. From there, you follow in the tracks of the Oberstdorf skiing legends who have had a particular impact on the winter sport.

You can optionally start the excursion with a visit to the Audi Arena, home to the Four Hills Tournament. Having secured some initial knowledge of the Oberstdorf world of skiing, you can now set off on the hike by following the skiing legends' trail to the Halde. With the cross-country skiing trail that starts here on the gently sloping side of the hill, a ski jumping hill that no longer exists today and the small tobogganing slope, the area below the "Haldenbichl" used to be somewhat of a little Nordic centre. Even today, the manageable slope on the Halde remains a very popular tobogganing site for little ones. The trail continues past the St. Loretto chapels at the southern edge of the village and along a snow-covered lane lined with apple trees parallel to the Ösch meadows until reaching the Ried cross-country skiing stadium, host of the World Championships. You next continue to the Heini Klopfer ski flying hill, named after the ski flyer and architect Heinrich Klopfer, the first person to brave a jump here in 1950. In the newly modernised cross-country skiing stadium, you can not only enjoy the World Championships but also show off your own skiing skills. The complex is open for everyone to use.

Eleven information points on Oberstdorf winter athletes can be found along the trail. The information on the columns offers you welcome variety during the hike and provides fascinating insights into the Oberstdorf skiing greats such as the three legendary ski jumpers Sepp Weiler, Heini Klopfer and Toni Brutscher or the Oberstdorf skiing pioneers Liese and Hermann Schedler.

All the most important facts are revealed over a distance of around five kilometres, which takes about two hours to walk. For more information about the individual athletes, you can also scan the QR code with your smartphone to directly access the Skiclub Oberstdorf's website.

A visit to the Heini Klopfer ski flying hill rounds off the entire hike with further insights into the history of skiing and, above all, impressive views of the Freibergsee Lake and the southern Allgäu High Alps from the ski flying tower. Access to the ski flying hill is disabled friendly thanks to the hillside lift. You can also choose to relax and enjoy some refreshments at the dr'schonzewiert restaurant at the foot of the ski flying hill. The trail now takes you along the banks of the Stillach and across the snowy Ösch meadows back to the Oberstdorf Haus.

i For more information and contact details for the two ski flying hills, see page 46.

Guided hike

Skisport- und Veranstaltungs GmbH also offers a guided hike along this route.

Meeting point: Audi Arena Oberstdorf, payment desk

Duration: approx. 3 ½ hours

The route provides stunning views of the entire village, inviting you to slow down a little to enjoy them. If one go simply isn't enough, the Nebelhornbahn valley station is just a couple of minutes' walk from the end of the toboggan run. The cable car also offers special tickets for tobogganists.

i For toboggan hire, see page 82.

The Oberstdorf snowshoe educational trail

Be the first to leave your tracks in the untouched snow while enjoying the peaceful surroundings – all in harmony with nature.

The heavily snow-covered winter landscape shows off its magical side with glistening powder snow and ice-frosted plants. It's certainly worth exploring without skis, snowboards and lifts. Instead, try a pair of snowshoes, one of the oldest pieces of equipment for getting around in the snow.

Every Wednesday, Tourismus Oberstdorf offers guided snowshoe hikes as part of a taster course on Oberstdorf's first snowshoe educational trail. The route takes participants to a total of six boards displaying clear information about snowshoe hiking and route planning. The hike is primarily aimed at visitors with no prior experience, who want to try their hand at walking in the giant shoes.

With a trained mountain guide, the participants follow the snowshoe educational trail and explore the Ried-Burgstallsteig region and Oberstdorf's great outdoors. In doing so, they learn a great deal about snowshoe hiking itself as well as how to prepare a route, the risk of avalanches, the check list for use before a hike, the equipment and how to act in an eco-friendly manner. This prepares the participants for future trips out into the high alpine terrain.

Breitachklamm Ravine

The deepest rocky gorge in Central Europe

Whatever the season, whether summer or winter, the Breitachklamm Ravine in Tiefenbach near Oberstdorf is open for your enjoyment all year round – with the exception of the snowmelt period and late autumn.

The Breitach River water “bubbles and burbles and roars and gurgles” through the narrow gorge with vertical, overhanging walls that tower to almost 100 metres in height, thundering over high shelves of rock, gushing through deep pools and spraying the finest droplets that dance in the light.

When winter comes and the raging stream that sweeps through the gorge from the Kleinwalsertal Valley towards Oberstdorf transforms into bizarre ice sculptures and the impressive rock walls are covered in huge icicles, a particularly stunning natural spectacle is created. You definitely shouldn't miss the chance to visit this unique natural monument!

From the B19 (Sonthofen-Oberstdorf), you can access the main entrance to the Breitachklamm Ravine from the P1 car park in Tiefenbach. Large boards along the main road already indicate whether parking spaces are still available here. Otherwise, you can detour to the P2 car park on Walserschanz and follow the signs to the ravine or take the Walsersbus to the Oberstdorf bus station and change to line 44 to Tiefenbach to the entrance. It takes about an hour to walk through the ravine. The hiking trail is wide and has good safety features but sturdy footwear is still essential and caution is required.

An evening torchlight hike through the bizarre icy and wintry landscape of the Breitachklamm is particularly enticing. Due to coronavirus, details of the torchlight hikes and other requirements for the winter season will be announced on the website at short notice. The ravine may also be closed and torchlight hikes cancelled at last minute due to the weather. Updates will be announced in the status indicator on the website at 9 a.m. each day.

The ravine is open in winter from 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. (last entry, closure at 4 p.m.).

Heimatmuseum Oberstdorf

The mountain village museum

The “Heimatmuseum Oberstdorf” (local history museum) is located in a 17th century period property in Oberstdorf. Fortune has it that despite a major fire in 1865 and the modernisation craze in the 1970s, the original core of the building is still intact. The museum opened in the historic premises in 1932 and has been continually expanded ever since.

Exhibits show how the destitute inhabitants of our mountain village survived, farmed the Alps, led the first visitors up into the mountains and learned how to ski, among other interesting facts. You will also find the largest leather ski boot in the world – shoe size 480, over three metres long and one and a half metres high.

Only those who are aware of the past can understand the present.

The availability of tours will depend on the pandemic situation. Please see the website for further information.

Guided tours: Tuesdays, 4 p.m.

Group tours subject to prior booking.

NTC Sports

NTC winter experiences offer action-packed fun in the snow

An abundance of sports equipment is just waiting for you to try it – and all you need to do so is a Funpark ticket. You'll soon get the hang of the snowbikes, skifoxes and tubing track, for hours of fun and laughter.

Winter fun park

Action-packed fun for all.

The Snowpark on the Nebelhorn offers an array of activities for action-packed adventures in the snow. Snowbiking is a mixture of cycling and skiing, with skis instead of wheels. Skifoxes also enable you to “simply sit on and start carving!” – in a seated position with special “gliders” strapped to your boots. Take to the tubing track at the heart of the snowpark and whiz down the piste on a huge air-filled rubber tyre. Riding a snowscoot is like using a city scooter, by standing on a kind of board with normal boots. Skibocks and zipflracers are racing sleds that look great on any piste.

The NTC Park guides are on hand to assist you with tips and tricks, as well as to provide you with brief instructions on how to use each piece of equipment. A Funpark ticket entitles you to try your hand at as many types of sports equipment as you like. Depending on the location, you may also need a valid lift ticket to get to the park.

An overview of the types of fun sports available can be found at www.ntc-oberstdorf.de/snowpark.

Courses: alpine skiing – snowboarding – Nordic skiing

A snow sports school at the heart of the action.

The snow sports instructors can precisely tailor private lessons to participants for memorable experiences and great teaching success. In the children's ski school, little ones have lots of fun in the “Kids Camp” and “Mini Club” while ambitious freeski kids can play around in the “Free-style Camp”. A varied family skiing course rounds off the range of options available.

Equipment hire: alpine skiing – snowboarding – Nordic skiing

Snow sports equipment serviced daily and the latest models from leading manufacturers.

NTC also offers a wide range of snow sports equipment. All rental items come with insurance included and can be quickly and easily swapped for different equipment at both locations, so trying various different snow sports could not be simpler.

Outdoor shop

Find equipment and your favourite clothing for the slopes.

The outdoor shops offer everything you need for a day in the snow, from insulating mid-layers to technical Gore-Tex shell jackets and matching accessories.

Depot

No need to lug your winter sports equipment to your accommodation or the ski lift.

All equipment is looked after, dried, disinfected and securely stored in the modern ski depots. The convenient facilities right by the Fellhornbahn and Nebelhornbahn valley stations help you enjoy a relaxed winter holiday.

Service

Be safe and have fun on the slopes.

Meticulous ski and snowboard tuning offers greater safety, control and, ultimately, enjoyment and performance. NTC uses the latest technology to service equipment immediately or overnight.

From Oberstdorf in all directions

Oberstdorf's side valleys and districts promise nature at its best and wild village romanticism

In the Stillachtal Valley, you will not only find Germany's most southerly inhabited village of Einödsbach but also the beautiful hamlet of Birgsau. Further attractions include the Fellhornbahn cable car and the Heini Klopfer ski flying hill, which gleams brightly in its newly renovated form, inviting you to come for a visit.

The neighbouring Trettachtal Valley has plenty to offer. Not only do the mountain farmers' village of Gerstruben and the Christlessee Lake make this a popular destination, but the pretty hamlet of Spielmannsau also invites you to enjoy a leisurely hike.

On route to the Oytaal Valley, you will pass the Kühberg. The tree-lined lane takes you to the Gasthof Oytaal restaurant, where the valley widens to offer a panoramic view of the mountain landscape.

The romantic Rohrmoostal Valley – with southern Germany's oldest wooden chapel – is also worth a visit in winter. Located in the Tiefenbach district, this hiking paradise has long-since belonged to a principality. Yet it is not just the Rohrmoostal Valley, but also the impressive Breitachklamm Ravine that invites you to visit this picturesque area.

The districts of Rubi, Reichenbach and Schöllang are characterised by peace and tranquillity. Located at high altitude above Reichenbach, the Gaisalpe offers spectacular views of the Allgäu Alps in both summer and winter. Rubi is known for its long hours of sunshine and many cosy eateries. Not far from Schöllang is a picturesque castle church, where you can enjoy a breathtaking view of the area.

The district of Kornau, located above Oberstdorf, offers fantastic views to the south. This village is characterised by cosy, private accommodation and historic chapels.

Cross-country skiing – a winter sport for the body and mind, young and old

Whether using the classic or skating technique, cross-country skiing is a winter sport that works the whole body. The powerful movements are good for the heart, circulatory system and lungs. The sport also helps to improve endurance, balance and coordination. Simply choose your preferred technique and go at your own pace and in line with your own level of fitness. The views of the mountains are rewarding, motivational and relaxing, all at the same time.

Classic cross-country skiing

The classic style "guides" cross-country skiers along two pre-created parallel tracks. With this technique, an easy-to-learn kicking action moves you forward in diagonal strides. Skiing along the tracks is great for improving basic endurance as it is easy to maintain a steady heart rate.

Skating

Skating is the faster and more energetic technique where each pole push is followed by gliding on one ski. The sweeping sideways movements use the arm, gluteal and leg muscles. Skating is considered to be the slightly harder technique to learn and the more strenuous of the two styles as it uses a lot of energy, especially on climbs.

i An overview of the trails, the programme and full information about the new cross-country stadium can be found at www.nordic-zentrum-oberstdorf.de. An extract from the cross-country skiing trail map can also be found on pages 22 and 23.

Ranger tours

Tracks in the snow and survival strategies in winter

Head on a journey of discovery through the snowy winter landscape with a ranger from the Zentrum Naturerlebnis Alpin (Alpine Nature Discovery Centre – ZNAIp) and discover all sorts of signs of life.

Even in the frozen winter world, it is still possible to discover signs of life: several animals defy the cold. But how? And who are they? As you head out with a ZNAIp ranger in search of their tracks, you will learn all sorts of exciting things about survival strategies in the colder months of the year. You will also experience the unique flora and fauna of the Allgäu Alps and obtain exciting insights into the everyday working lives of the professional rangers who know this region like the back of their hands. After all, their duties not only include the tours but also recording Alpine biodiversity.

i Further information and all key dates for this winter can be found at www.oberstdorf.de/veranstaltungskalender

The work of the Zentrum Naturerlebnis Alpin (ZNAIp)

ZNAIp, with its team of experts from the fields of nature, tourism and land use, is the centre of excellence for current challenges in relation to Alpine protection. The topics are developed as models in the southern district of the Upper Allgäu and passed on to interested regions within the Bavarian Alps.

ZNAIp is a service provider and advisory body for municipalities, authorities and other institutions on all matters relating to the core topic of conservation. As a monitoring and research centre, it is also involved in projects such as protecting endangered grouse from extinction.

New forms of visitor guidance around the area are being tested by the centre's own rangers, who are creating a wide range of tours for locals and visitors alike. The main areas that the rangers cover include the Upper Allgäu municipalities to the east of the Iller (Allgäu High Alps nature reserve) and the Grasgehren basin on the Riedberger Horn. They also work closely with the Nagelfluhkette nature park.

The Alpine landscape in the Upper Allgäu is characterised by a wealth of natural environments and thus a huge number of different species such as black grouse, Apollo butterflies and sundews. At the same time, the region provides a habitat for the local people as well as about 8 million day visitors and overnight guests per year. ZNAIp develops and implements solutions for the respectful coexistence of people and nature.

The wild “Klausen” of Oberstdorf

An ancient custom from pagan times

As the time comes for cosy winter evenings, customs in Oberstdorf start to come alive. These include one of the oldest customs: the Allgäu “Klausen” processions.

When people’s fears of evil spirits overpowered them on dark nights, the young Oberstdorf locals dressed up in fur tunics, donned fleece-covered heads with deer antlers and ran through the narrow streets, rattling chains to drive them away. For many years, only long-established Oberstdorf locals were allowed to join in. Today, this rule is no longer quite as strict. And it’s no longer only evil spirits that are hunted. Instead, it’s cheeky young ladies and curious spectators.

On 6 December, the “Klausen” take over the Oberstdorf streets. Two days beforehand (on the feast of St. Barbara), the women of Oberstdorf meet at nightfall. They don traditional everyday clothing from days gone by and head for the women’s procession, known as the “Klausenbärbel-Treiben”.

Please note

During the event, the Trachtenverein Oberstdorf (Oberstdorf Traditional Costume Association) ensures that things don’t get out of control. Despite this, the Klausen day is not everyone’s cup of tea and even the locals often prefer to observe the spectacle through the window from the comfort and warmth of their own home. In particular, children and those unfamiliar with the custom should heed this advice! Please also note that the public infrastructure companies close by no later than 6 p.m. on these days and 98% of gastronomy establishments are closed on these evenings.

Funkensonntag (Bonfire Sunday)

06 March 2022

At the start of Lent, on the first Sunday after Fasnacht (Carnival), huge bonfires light up the night sky in many open areas around Oberstdorf.

The origins of this ancient custom are still unclear and there are multiple possible explanations. Some associate the bonfires with the many Easter and Midsummer fires and say that they burn all things wicked at the end of winter in order to strengthen the sun and ward off evil. This explains why a straw witch is symbolically set alight. Others associate the event with the fertility rituals and burnt offerings of the Celts. Today, Bonfire Sunday is a sociable occasion that's great fun to watch as the tall wooden pyres go up in flames and blaze away against the night sky.

Funke-Kiechle

The deliciously sweet "Funke-Kiechle" are a firm favourite with visitors and locals alike and an integral part of any Bonfire Sunday celebrations. These tantalising, fried treats are only available on this one day. They are washed down with a cup of hot mulled wine and enjoyed in good company around the fire!

i The locations of the bonfires can be found online from mid-February at www.oberstdorf.de

The kings of the skies return to Oberstdorf

Ski Flying World Cup from 18 to 20/03/2022

This winter, a late highlight for ski jumping fans awaits us in March on the Heini Klopfer ski flying hill. The World Cup weekend with two individual competitions promises numerous flights of over 200 metres and exciting sporting action.

It will be intriguing to see who comes to Oberstdorf as the reigning ski flying World Champion following the World Championships in Vikersund (NOR) the week before – and who will therefore naturally be the favourite for this competition. The new Olympic champions from Beijing will also be in the competitor line-up in Oberstdorf and still be in top form for the late highlights.

Florian Stern, General Secretary of the World Cup, is already looking forward to the event: “Ski flying is the most prestigious discipline in the ski jumping calendar and we are delighted to have been given the honour of holding another dual World Cup in Oberstdorf.”

Disabled-friendly holidays

Disabled access as a mark of quality and convenience at three altitude levels. Holidays for all people and all needs. With transport facilities, accommodation and leisure activities that are accessible and suitable for the disabled. In the healing air of Oberstdorf, even allergy-sufferers can breathe easily and enjoy their holiday. Oberstdorf breaks down barriers.

Disabled-friendly “travel for all”

Germany has introduced a nationwide certification system for areas that offer “Disabled access as a mark of quality and convenience” – and Oberstdorf has earned its official stamp.

The necessary information for guests is being collated by qualified investigators and evaluated using clear quality criteria developed through several years of cooperation and coordination with tourist operators and relevant associations and continually optimised.

i For further information and a list of certified companies as well as leisure services in Oberstdorf, please visit www.oberstdorf.de/barrierefrei

Holidays for allergy sufferers

Do you suffer from allergies or food intolerances? In Oberstdorf, you can breathe easily at the most beautiful time of the year.

A network of allergy-friendly accommodation options, restaurants, food stores and bakeries will make your holiday as pleasant as possible but cannot guarantee that you will be completely symptom free. Allergies are always varied and differ from one person to the next.

Kneipp and climatic health resort

Enjoy all-round wellbeing and relaxation

With a wonderfully mild climate, outstanding air quality and an untouched natural landscape, Oberstdorf has been regarded as a climatic health resort since 1937, including with the title Premium Class since 2002.

In a climatic health resort, wellbeing factors (e.g. clean air) and stimulating elements (e.g. sun lamps with gentle cold stimulation) can be administered in such a way as to support people's health. Oberstdorf offers various climate zones at three altitudes: a nourishing climate in the valley, an alternating climate up to 1,200 MAMSL and a stimulating climate in the mountains. The clean, clear mountain air is low in pollen, fine dust and allergens. Continual meteorological checks and regular fine dust measurements ensure consistently excellent air quality. In addition to the commitment to a healthy climate, the Premium Class locations also take care of nature in all other areas too. For example, they primarily use local products in order to protect their own landscape.

Oberstdorf has been a recognised Kneipp location since 1964. The Kneipp-based understanding of a healthy life and natural healing looks at people as a whole and aims to maintain or restore good health.

It is not without reason that Oberstdorf is one of only a small number of healing resorts in Germany to have been twice awarded highly sought-after certifications as a climatic health resort and a Kneipp resort.

With its range of natural remedies, spa facilities and customer-oriented hosts, Tourism Oberstdorf offers a special service for unforgettable holidays and spa experiences.

Disabled-friendly advice from Tourismus Oberstdorf

The Tourist Information Office in the Oberstdorf Haus now not only has a portable loop system but also a fully accessible advice counter. The portable loop system, which principally improves the advice services for people with a hearing aid, is positioned between the visitor and the adviser.

The system picks up the sound of people's voices using a built-in or external microphone and transmits appropriate inductive signals to the integrated loop. These signals are received by hearing aids (set to position "T" or "MT"). This minimises ambient noise and improves the quality of the advisory services. Anyone wanting to use this system will find a fully equipped help desk at the back of the Tourist Information Office in the Oberstdorf Haus as well as at the Tourist Information Office at the railway station. Both counters are labelled with a clear pictogram.

Visitors who use a wheelchair can now be served at eye level by Tourist Information Office employees at the disabled-friendly counter in the Oberstdorf Haus. This counter is freely accessible for wheelchairs and makes it easier to provide advice. It is also labelled with a clear pictogram.

All recommended excursions and leisure activities that are suitable for wheelchair users and certified to the "Reisen für Alle" ("Travel for all") standard are identified by this icon in this winter brochure.

The Nebelhornbahn and Fellhornbahn cable cars as well as the hiking routes to Rubi, into the Trettachtal and Oytal Valleys and to the ski flying hill have all been extolled and certified by "Reisen für Alle" ("Travel for all"). Please note, however, that the winter weather is likely to cause restrictions to the fully accessible nature of these.
